GENERAL INFORMATION:

When the church does not have a Pastor, or while the Pastor is unable to perform his or her duties, the Session should obtain the service of a minister of this denomination in a temporary pastoral relation. Temporary pastoral relations are those of Stated Supply, Interim Pastor or Temporary Supply. A minister serving in a temporary pastoral relationship is not eligible to become the next installed or designated Pastor, except as Presbytery may choose to allow a Temporary Supply to become the next installed Pastor by a 2/3 vote of the Presbytery. (G.14.0551) All temporary pastoral contracts must be approved by the Committee on Ministry. (G.14.0550)

A STATED SUPPLY is a minister appointed by the Presbytery, after consultation with the Session, to perform the functions of a Pastor in a church. The relation shall be established only by Presbytery and shall extend for a period not to exceed 12 months at a time. A Stated Supply shall not be re-appointed until the Presbytery, through its Committee on Ministry, has reviewed his or her effectiveness.

An INTERIM PASTOR is a minister invited by the Session to preach the Word, administer the Sacraments, and fulfill the duties for a specified period not to exceed 12 months at a time, while the church is seeking a Pastor. The Session cannot secure an Interim Pastor without seeking the counsel of Presbytery through its Committee on Ministry.

A TEMPORARY SUPPLY may be a Minister, a Candidate or an Elder secured by the Session to conduct services when the Pastor is unable to perform pastoral duties. The Session shall seek the counsel of Presbytery through its Committee on Ministry before securing a Temporary Supply. Ordained Ministers of other Christian churches may be employed by the Session of a particular church in a TEMPORARY SUPPLY relationship, provided that such Minister present to the Presbytery his/her credentials of good standing in the ecclesiastical body to which he/she belongs, and provided that ecclesiastical body gives its approval to the Temporary Supply relationship. A temporary pastor is not installed and is not a member of the Session. The Presbytery shall appoint a moderator of the Session who may be the temporary pastor. (G.14.0550)
