AND Your Story

We are all on different paths, we have different points of views and we all come from different walks of life. Yet we are on this journey together. Come and experience community as Jesus is made known to us in the breaking of the bread.

Psalm 119: 1-3

¹ Happy are those whose way is blameless,
who walk in the law of the LORD.

² Happy are those who keep his decrees,
who seek him with their whole heart,

³ who also do no wrong,

but walk in his ways.

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet

and a light to my path.

And Other Stories

Rev. Amy Cantrell BeLoved House, Asheville

BeLoved is a community of people from the streets and margins who conspire to do justice and end oppression including homelessness, poverty, and racism by doing the works of love and mercy. The community's life and work includes the Homeless Voice Project, Rise Up Studio artists collective, a declared sanctuary in the New Sanctuary movement, Elders Free Farmers Market, building community gardens, and more.

Amy, a pastor in the Presbyterian Church, USA, was school educated at Columbia Theological Seminary and was street educated on Ponce de Leon Ave. in Atlanta at the Open Door Community and on Grove Street at BeLoved Asheville. She is mom to twin three year olds, loves the color purple, playing guitar, and studying movement history.
