

1. Every church, no matter the size, deserves skilled pastoral leadership.

2. The journey for every individual who wishes to serve a church may be different but all must begin with informed discernment and end with examination.

3. Exceptions should err on the side of least commitment